Great Collection.

Among a fine display of antiques in the window of Hall's furniture store is a pewter tea set 325 years old, a copper tea kettle 250 years old, a tea caddy made from mahogany taken from an old cathedral in England, loaned by Mrs. Thomas Neal, of Jackson street; a pitcher 200 years old loaned by Mrs. Doyle, of Jackson street; one pair brass candle sticks 170 years old, pitcher 300 years old, loaned by Mrs. Robert Sayers, of Jackson street; a ginger jar brought from China by Commodore Perry of the U. S. navy, given to Mrs. C. R. Hall by his niece; a vell designed and made 65 years ago. Two interesting articles seen in this window are an old reader of 1822, used by Mrs. Hall's mother when a girl, and an exoneration from military service in the year 1848, signed by Captain E. R. Brady, for Mr. Hall's father.

Breton is Master Of His Machine.

Strapped to His Auto he Successfully Jumps the Chasm Before Assembled Thousands.

Before crowds that packed the street from Frank's Tavern to the National Hotel, Breton the aerial autoist, prodded himself master of his machine twice yesterday and gave a knockout blow to the hoodoo that has been hovering over him for six weeks.

In many of the loop-the-loop attractions there is a mechanical precision and mathematical calculation which almost eliminates real danger. In Breton's case, all depends on the quickness of his eye and hand in steering, and even this fails sometimes, as was demonstrated Monday.

Arnold Reunion.

The Arnold reunion will be held at Luthersburg Thursday, August 22nd. Mrs. W. B. Alexander, Miss Isabel Arnold and F. P. Alexander and family will attend.

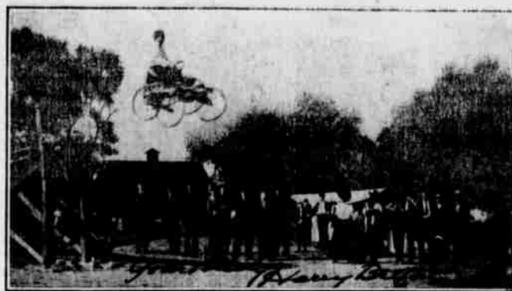

A Candidate.

W. G. Buffington, of Brockwayville, who will be a Republican candidate for the nomination for county treasurer, is one of the visitors in town today.

Alaska Meetings.

Joseph E. Kirkwood, missionary for American Sunday School Union, opened a Union Mission Sunday School at Eleanora shaft last Sunday.

HORSE THIEF WILL BE LYNCHED.

Just as we go to press a posse of armed men are galloping through the town on the trail of a miscreant alleged to have stolen a horse at Emerickville. The air is resounding with revolver shots and a wildly excited populace has joined in the chase.

MANY PEOPLE SEE SCHOOL BUILDING

Building Thrown Open and a Program of Music and Drills given by Pupils of the School.

From nine to twelve o'clock this morning the public school building in Reynoldsville was thrown open to the public and large crowds of visitors inspected the building.

Raftsmen of Long Ago.

Three old raftsmen of pioneer days, Joseph Ishman, John Clark and Moses Johns, ranging in age from 74 to 78 years, all now living in Brookville, came to town this morning.

Sack Race and Dash.

Leo Nolan won the sack race on Main street yesterday afternoon, the prize being $3.00 in cash. The 100 yard dash race was won by Leonard Harris. Prize $3.00 in cash.

Double-Headed Chicken.

M. J. Schlabig has on exhibition at his store on West Main street a curiosity in the shape of a double headed little chick, preserved in alcohol. It is perfectly formed in every other way.

Mrs. D. R. P. Womer, of Kane, and three daughters, Mrs. R. L. Stiles, of Medera, Mrs. Eva Middleton, of Union City, and Miss Blanch Womer, of Kane, formerly all of Reynoldsville, are among the visitors in town for Old Home Week.

Mrs. Thomas Partell, of Deposit, N. Y., and son, John D. Partell, of Scranton, Pa., Miss Louise Hurd, of Galeton, Pa., and Miss Minnie Guthmiller, of DuBois, are visiting at the home of P. A. Hardman. Mrs. Partell is Mrs. Hardman's mother.

Neighbors' Day is Attracting Great Crowds.

Thursday is Neighbor's day on the program and as we go to press the crowds from Punxsutawney, Brookville and DuBois are flowing into town. From DuBois fully a thousand people came on one passenger train and every trolley coming in is filled to its utmost capacity.

Thank You Gentlemen

A copy of Volume 1, No. 1, of the Evening Star, Reynoldsville's new daily paper, reached this office yesterday. The first number was issued Monday and it is a hummer for its age and size.

Editor Stephenson has produced a paper that would do credit to a publication many years its senior, and both the proprietor and the patrons are to be congratulated on its appearance, if for only one week.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

Peter Emery, of Emerickville, one of the pioneer settlers of Jefferson county, spent Wednesday in town and registered his name among the Old Home Week guests.

Mr. and Mrs. James Corbett, of Landstreet, Somerset Co., are visiting H. E. Stewart on Jackson st.

Hon. Henry I. Wilson, of Big Run, one of Jefferson County's attorneys, a prospective candidate for the Republican nomination for State senator, was a visitor in town yesterday.

Walter B. Reynolds, of Warren, could not resist the attractiveness of Old Home Week and he came to town today to enjoy the festivities of the celebration.

William and Fred Grimes and sister, Miss Hattie Grimes, of Salisbury, are visiting Mrs. Mary A. Barry in West Reynoldsville. It has been over sixteen years since the family left Reynoldsville.

James H. Clover, who was proprietor of the Belnap House, now the City Hotel, some twenty years ago, a resident of Brookville at present, has been in Reynoldsville the past two days renewing old acquaintances.

The Indians.

The Indian parade yesterday was one of the best things ever seen in Reynoldsville. Decked in feathers and paint with full accoutrements of war, winding in a serpentine trail the whole distance of the route, their appearance was alarming enough to be the real thing. As they trailed up Main street single file, scouts skirmished in every nook and corner and afforded considerable amusement on Grant and Jackson streets by peering into every home and brandishing their tomahawks in blood-thirsty style.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hemer, of East Brady, are among the visitors in town. Mrs. Hemer, whose maiden name was Florence Stone, formerly resided here.

James C. Mitchell, for many years a resident of Reynoldsville, who moved to Idaho Springs, Colorado, several years ago, came all the way back to Reynoldsville to meet his old time comrades during Old Home Week.

John R. Smith, of south Mahoning township, Indiana county, was in Reynoldsville this week for the first time since 1877, thirty years ago. He is a brother of Mr. John S. Smith.

Eliza C. McCreeght, a lady of eighty years who now lives in DuBois, was in Reynoldsville the first of this week renewing acquaintances of the long ago.
